joined in by the people on the streets, as well as the members of the army of liberation. The people seem in high spirits and there is much rejoicing over the fact that all the rebel factories are united.

The movement knows no party, the leaders declare. It favors the fundamental government system incorporated in the law of 1856.

The army will march south on the 15th. Orozco made this statement, and all the generals concurred.

Orozco has been given absolute power of command and all the generals have sworn to obey him and force obedience from their commands.

Everything is tranquil in the city and all the saloons remain closed.

Business is being transacted as usual, and the officials of the rebel army claim to be able to maintain discipline.

"I am not a candidate."

"But, colonel," I protested, "I don't give a rap whether you are a candidate or not; I want to know whether you will be one."

"Great Scott!" he retorted, with evident displeasure. "Haven't I told you plainly that I am not a candidate?"

THE cold, biting blasts of Winter call the healthy to the great outdoors.

Youth with the surging, tingling blood circulation of good health yields to irresistible activity. Winter is the source of keen enjoyment to the human being whose system is up to normal.

Elderly people, however, and those whose bodies have become weak and emaciated from illness or neglect, need a gentle stimulant to tone the system back to healthy hardihood.

For bringing the tired system up to its proper functioning, there is nothing better than good alcohol taken in moderate amounts—but only in moderate amounts. A little

REIGN OF TERROR IN STATE OF SINALOA, MEXICO, CONTINUES

American Citizen, Writing Plainly of Terrible Conditions, Hopes United States Will Protect Its People.

Cullacan, Sin., March 4.

Editor El Paso Herald: The enclosed carbon of my letter of this date to an American consul is offered as of possible news value. The suggestion that we withdraw to safety came in response to the information we furnished that we were practically besieged on our ranches here, concentrated at a few points where we hope to be able to survive the present reign of terror.

We are under the impression that the American people do not expect their fellow citizens to withdraw at the loss of nearly all they have in the world, because the friendly power into whose territory we are fleeing is a nation of our race has fallen, and no government that commands respect has risen in its place, leaving us exposed to the anarchy of lawless elements that make no pretense of representing a people, openly asserting their intention to loot without regard for age, sex or nationality.

It is time for some worthy pen to tackle this subject. The subject of the American people has been appearing in your editorial and news columns right along this year, but point without every editorial writer this way, to write in some of our national publications?

To the El Paso Herald more than any other agency we attribute the recent more worthy attitude of our government with respect to the protection of its citizens, on the plea of the milk and much diplomacy that is making us the easy marks for all looters on all occasions. We shall be glad to see the obligations to your great newspaper.

Washington evidently assumes that to Mexico City there is a power that really represents the Mexican people, although no such power exists. The Mexico-loving Mexicans would be glad to see decency prevail in their land under any flag rather than be despoiled every year and always without any sort of distinction except of cruelty and lack of consideration.

Make whatever you like out of this story using Mr. Alizer's name and my own if you desire, but in no way casting an unfavorable reflection on Mr. Alizer, with whom I am on the most friendly terms, and I consider him one of the most worthy representatives of our people I have met in our consular service.

"American."

[The copy of the letter to the consul, referred to in his letter, follows herewith:]

"Cullacan, Sin., March 4.

"Wm. E. Alizer, American Consul.

"Dear Mr. Alizer: Herewith the envelope that brought your $1-2740 letter of Feb. 20, received here March 2, showing Marzellan postmark Feb. 20, Mexico postmark Feb. 25, and no 'Missent' or other explanation. A doubt of the authenticity of our correspondence is raised.

"There is no change from my report of a few days ago. The danger here is very near and threatening yet.

"Mr. Thompson phoned yesterday a message from you yesterday, suggesting, per instructions from our embassy, that the embassy deems it its duty to advise Americans to withdraw from any party to locality where conditions or prospects of lawlessness so threaten, pending personal safety. We are so positive our remedy will completely relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish it free of all cost if it fails.

"Constipation is commonly caused by weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine. To expect a cure you must therefore tone up and strengthen those organs and restore them to normal action.

"We want you to try Rexall's Orderlies on our guarantee. They are eaten like candy, and are particularly good for children. They seem to act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on the other organs. They do not purge or cause other inconvenience. We will refund your money if they do not overcome chronic or habitual constipation and thus aid to relieve the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments. Try Rexall's Orderlies at our risk. point of securing just compensation for outrages, while we are unable to obtain of a single case where an American family has been accorded any measure of restitution for the death of any one of the hundreds of Americans who have been murdered in this country under the guise of revolution in the last year, nor do we know of one dollar paid in compensation for the hundreds of cases of robbery and loot we have endured.

"As a matter of fact, in some states, especially Sinaloa, since the fall of the Diaz regime there has been no government that commands sufficient respect for a witness to an outrage to give his testimony without fear of immediate reprisals and there are American families in this valley who have been looted as many as four times in that period, on their ranches and in the streets of miles of towns where whatever government has existed has been strongest, and the looters are known, and the impunity they enjoy has created a chronic disdain for Americans.

We wonder how many of us are the equivalent from the Washington standpoint, of one perfectly good missionary, knowing that American troops are now in China to protect our missionaries who have probably never been in greater danger than we are at present certainly we can show a greater number of murders and outrages among us in the past year than can our fellowmen in China, and we presume to consider ourselves as much a part of American greatness as they and as rightly entitled to the protection of our government.

"We have American women and children here who cannot be moved in a running fight such as our withdrawal would likely result in. We shall try to stay with them and protect them in the traditional American way; if we abandon them, we express our suggestion that the embassy will not prevent a consciousness that we have degraded American citizenship in a most cowardly manner.

"I shall continue to inform you of developments in the full assurance that you will continue, as you have in the past, to do everything it is possible for you to do for us."

AMERICANS ARE HELD UP BY THE REBELS

Held up by Gen. Salazar and forced to return 120 kilometers with him, George H. Garvey, chief geologist for the Guggenheim syndicate, including the American Smelting and Refining company, arrived in El Paso Wednesday afternoon in an auto from Chihuahua, where he has been marooned for the past week. Mr. Garvey left Chihuahua Sunday night at 8 o'clock in an auto to come to El Paso. When he left Orozco was in front of the foreign club, apparently in full charge of the rebellion, and he had been treated west 20 miles and was in a disorganized condition. Governor Gonzalez left the city when it was known that Garvey and his party were in hiding either with Villa or at a ranch house, Mr. Garvey says.

He was stopped at El Sueco by Gen. Salazar, who forced the occupants, including Mr. Garvey, C. B. Neider, assistant superintendent of the San Toy mine, and F. E. Alizer, engineer of the same mine, to accompany him back to Sauz, where his credentials were inspected. They were stopped and taken back because they did not have a pass from Orozco but were then given a special train and sent back to their auto.

REFUGEES RUSH OUT OF SONORA

Many Cattlemen Selling Out Cheaply—Cattle Thefts From Arizona.

Douglas, Ariz., March 7.—Every train out of Sonora is crowded with refugees, for the most part women and children, acting upon the hint given Americans to get out of Mexico. The refugees are by no means all Americans, however, Mexican families really predominating among the safety seekers. One train over the Nacozari line was delayed for more than eight hours by the burning of a bridge seven kilometers north of Nacozari. It was crowded with passengers, the majority of whom came from El Paso.

Forty rurales, under command of Comandante Elias Calles, of Agua Prieta, have been despatched against the bandits, said to be making their headquarters in the Cienega mountains east of the town. All were well mounted on their cattle until they had heard of the revolutionary movement. This decided them at once and a number of details were consigned to the Cochise county border, according to a personal letter received in Douglas yesterday from Chubulcan, Santa Cruz county. Henry F. Ashburn, a prominent rancher, stock breeder and former supervisor of Santa Cruz, last 24 head of fine horses during the latter part of last week. The trail was followed until it crossed the line, where it was abandoned owing to the refusal of the Mexican authorities to allow American officers to cross into Mexico unless they first disarm themselves. The ranchers of the Cochulcan district have vowed to resist to the death any attempt to prevent further thefts.

TROUBLE FEARED ON TUCSON EXTENSION

Americans Are Arming to Be Prepared—Dynamite in Quantities.

Lewis Springs, Ariz., March 7.—Precautions against trouble with Mexican labor are being taken by construction contractors on the El Paso & Southwestern railroad between Lewis Springs and Tucson. In the event that the United States troops take possession of Mexican soil, hundreds and hundreds of laborers from Mexico are employed on the grading work and they are taking an intense interest in all news of the situation. Large gangs of them are quitting and leaving for home every day.

The Lee Moor Construction company and many others of the contractors have carloads of dynamite and blasting powder, inadequately housed in the

REBEL IS KILLED WHEN HE DEMANDS TOWN'S SURRENDER

Monterey, Mexico, March 7.—In a private communication from the Hacienda San Tiburcio, Zacatecas, belonging to Salvador Madrazo and company, it is stated that a Zapatista leader drove into town and demanded its surrender, saying that 500 men would attack the place if it was not done immediately. The man in charge of the hacienda shot the bandit through the head and no more Zapatistas have appeared on the scene.

Notwithstanding the improbability of any trouble here, many Americans are taking of going to Texas to await developments. Others are depending on advice given by the United States consular agents who seem to be thoroughly informed concerning matters at present.

HANDBILLS DISTRIBUTED IN VALLEY PRATISING MADERO

Handbills were distributed among the Mexican residents of the city and valley Wednesday by a Mexican boy in a wagon. The handbills declared that Madero is a hero like Hidalgo, and Orozco a traitor. A translation of the handbill read:

"Alert Mexican people: The glorious history of Mexico is being repeated and the day appears when Hidalgo, Juarez and Madero are heroes, patriots and liberators of the principles and firm convictions. 'Madero, Miramon and Orozco are traitors to their mother country. A plot of the Cientifico party and Orozco has been discovered."
